Overview of GSL Responsibilities

The GSL is the heart of the Governor's School for Agriculture (GSA). The GSL is the person who interacts on a continuing and personal basis with small numbers of GSA students, providing instruction, mentorship, and assistance to the Governor's School students. The GSL plays a critical role in ensuring the Student Code of Conduct is adhered to at all times, and ensuring the personal safety of all Governor's School for Agriculture students. Other roles include providing administrative and other support as directed by the Director or On-site Director. GSL's will be selected for their academic ability, enthusiasm, potential as instructional assistants, and leadership.
